

Aryan Bawa

SUO GENERAL ELECTION 2023

Faculty of Management Representative Candidate

It is with great pleasure that I introduce myself, Aryan Bawa, as a candidate for the position of Management Representative in the upcoming student union election. As a third-year management student hailing from New Delhi, India, I have an unwavering drive for leadership and ambition, which has led me to partake in various extracurricular activities and academic clubs throughout my time at this esteemed institution.

My academic pursuit of excellence has enabled me to maintain outstanding grades in my coursework and fostered a keen interest in the field of management. This dedication has garnered the respect and admiration of my peers and professors, who have acknowledged my academic and interpersonal skills.

In addition, I have honed excellent communication skills and a strong work ethic, which have been put into practice through numerous volunteer opportunities and internships in the management field. My natural ability to work well in teams is an invaluable asset that I will bring to the role of Management Representative.

Platform Points

- To enhance their learning and social experiences, I will organize a series of events, such as guest lectures, business competitions, and networking opportunities.
- I will also propose a series of workshops, seminars and other resources aimed at developing critical business skills.
- In order to foster an open and inclusive environment, I will establish an accessible feedback mechanism, allowing students to voice their concerns and suggestions
