Agreement

Please read the Student Association Regulations carefully. These are the regulations by which you will govern your Student Association.

If you are a Course Union, submit a constitution and/or by-laws upon ratification.

Renewals are accepted July 1 to the first Friday of Term 1 (Sept. 8, 2023). Course unions can submit renewals after May 1 if elections were completed in Term 2.

A minimum of one executive of your Student Association must be present at the Orientation Day held at the beginning of Term 1 and Term 2 each academic year.

Student Association Signing Authorities

Your signing authorities are the executive members of your Student Association who oversee and approve the spending of Student Association funds. You are required to list no more/less than three signing authorities who are also the executive members listed on page 1.

The Students' Union will confirm that the signatures below match on every cheque requisition form submitted. A signing authority cannot sign for their own reimbursement.

If you need to change the Signing Authorities, please e-mail izzy.rusch@suo.ca from the student association email address and let her know who will be removed and who will be replacing them.
