About Me:

Hello people! I'm Soumil Chhabra, and I'm thrilled to announce my candidacy for the position of Director at Large within the Students' Union. As a passionate advocate for our vibrant and diverse student body, I'm committed to being your voice, your advocate, and your partner in shaping the university experience you deserve.

Why Choose Me?

Your Voice, My Priority: Throughout my academic journey, I've been deeply involved in various roles, from teaching assistant to club leader. This firsthand experience has allowed me to truly understand your concerns, aspirations, and ideas. As Director at Large, I'll ensure your voice is heard loud and clear, bridging the gap between students and the decision-makers.

Tech-Driven Solutions: As a Computer Science major, I've honed my skills in technology and innovation. I propose to leverage these abilities to enhance our university experience. From streamlining communication channels to improving online resources, I'm dedicated to utilizing tech-driven solutions that empower us all.

Community & Collaboration: I believe in the strength of unity and collaboration. I've actively fostered connections within UBC Okanagan's community, whether as a club leader or through volunteer work. As your representative, I'll work tirelessly to build bridges and strengthen bonds, ensuring that we, as students, can thrive together.

Your vote for me as Director at Large means a commitment to a more connected, innovative, and vibrant UBC Okanagan. Together, we can make our university experience extraordinary. Let's amplify your voices, embrace technology for positive change, and unite our diverse community.

Your Voice, Your Vision: Soumil Chhabra for Director at Large!
