

Amy Wang

SUO GENERAL
ELECTION 2024

Faculty of Creative & Critical Studies Representative Candidate

Hello! My name is Amy Wang. I'm a first-year Master of Fine Arts student with a specialization in poetry and creative nonfiction. As someone who grew up in Kelowna, I first came to UBC-O for my undergraduate studies in 2015. I'm happy to be back for my graduate degree!

I'm running for the position of Faculty of Creative and Critical Studies Student Representative. Currently, I serve as Graduate Student Representative on the FCCS Graduate Committee and Vice President in the Master of Fine Arts Student Association. I'm well-acquainted with FCCS and the people in it. I was previously an executive for several clubs in my undergraduate degree.

Outside of school, I hold editorial positions on PRISM international and The Goose. My writing is published in numerous literary magazines. I'm also active in the local art scene. But I love branching out—hiking, birdwatching, and yoga are some of my favorite hobbies.

Let me share three words:

1. Cost-Effective.
2. Community.
3. Space.

Do these strike a chord? I've noticed these needs are unmet, and we deserve nothing but the best. Have you ever wanted cheaper supplies? How about opportunities to connect with the local community? Or dedicated space to collaborate with fellow CCS students?

The time has come to find answers. I am excited to do so for you.
