

Darsh Alamchandani

SUO GENERAL
ELECTION 2024

Vice-President Internal Candidate

My name is Darsh Alamchandani, and I'm excited to run for Vice-President Internal in the upcoming student elections. I am a dedicated, motivated, and passionate student leader who is committed to improving the student experience at UBC.

Throughout my academic journey, I have been actively involved in various student organizations, clubs, and events. These experiences have helped me develop strong leadership, communication, and organizational skills, which I believe are essential for this position. I have also gained valuable knowledge and insights into the challenges that students face on a day-to-day basis and how we can work together to overcome them.

My current role as Director-at-Large with the SUO has provided me with invaluable experience and insights that directly align with the responsibilities of the Vice-President Internal position. Through my active involvement in supporting student union events and engagement activities, I have refined my organizational and collaborative skills, ensuring a seamless and inclusive experience for all members. My commitment to representing student perspectives has allowed me to understand the diverse needs of our student body, a crucial aspect of fostering a strong internal community. Additionally, my dedication to upholding the SUO's Mission Statement has equipped me with a deep understanding of the union's values and goals, essential for guiding internal matters. Serving on key committees such as Campus Life, Policy, and Oversight has given me firsthand experience in shaping policies, overseeing organizational functions, and contributing to the continuous improvement of the union's operations. This comprehensive background positions me well
